

282—17.4(272) Requirements for a Class D career and technical license. A two-year Class D career and technical license may be issued to an applicant who has not met all of the experience requirements for the initial career and technical license.